GENERAL BUSINESS

AWARDS

Bob Roush reported that Chapter participated in MEDDAC NCO and Soldier of the Year Awards Ceremony and would be participating in the Armor Center's Recognition of Excellence Ceremony on 22 January 2007. Also, Patton and Abrams Awards continue to be presented at the conclusion of courses conducted by 1ATB.

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

Bob Roush drew the attention of all present to the membership report contained in the agenda packet. He reported that our EOY target is 1700; we have 1769 as of EOM Dec 2006 (down 48). He added that we normally see a slight decline at this time of the year. It's time to ramp up again. CSM Waters added that he has found many new soldiers unaware of what AUSA is...need educational materials to send down the chain of command. Bob N. said that we need to conduct some events that would attract younger soldiers (golf fundraiser doesn't do that much in this regard). He asked for those present to think about venues for AUSA exposure. Gene K. said that he and Steve Walton would be glad to help chapter with auction if that fundraiser was brought back. Frank F. said that we might be able to reach junior soldiers via the internet at myspace.com. Bob N. encouraged all ideas and closed with the comment that we are "only as good as our membership".

Command Group: BG Tucker reported that the post would be inundated with VIPs over the next few months to include former Chiefs of Armor Conference and Iraqi Defense Conference just to mention a few. He also related an experience he had while performing funeral duty in Lebanon, Indiana. When we went to pay for services at a local McDonald's, he was told that no one is charged who is in uniform...this took him aback and made him and others feel very special about serving our Nation.

Miscellaneous: M. Giulitto offered upcoming 5K run as a venue for AUSA. She also said that BG Tucker was scheduled to address the Radcliff Chamber in March about Disaster Preparedness. Mr. Farris promoted the upcoming OCSC's Gold Rush. He solicited help with gaming and donations. Bob N. plugged Hooray for Heroes scheduled for 19 May 2006. And, CSM Waters announced that PX/Commissary Meeting would be held in Leader's Club on 26 January 2007 from 1330 to 1430 and that all eligible patrons were invited to attend.

ADJOURN. There being no further business, Bob N. adjourned meeting at 1235.
